(P) No. 78/78/GAD. dated the 31st January, 1978, as S.R.O. No. 131/78 in Part I of the Kerala Gazette No.7 dated the 14th February, 1978, as subsequently amended, namely:—

Explanatory Note

(This is not part of the Notification but is intended to indicate its general purport).

No. 366/80/Plg. dated 8-8-1980 redesignated the Bureau of Economics and Statistics as Directorate of Economics and Statistics. The redesignation ordered does not give the meaning intended. Hence it has become necessary to amend the Special Rules for the Kerala Statistics and Economics Subordinate Service so as to redesignate the Department as the "Department of Economics and Statistics". This amendment is intended to achieve the above object.

By order of the Governor,

P. Sahadevan,

Additional Secretary to Government.

(This is not a part of the amendment, but is intended to indicate its general purport).

The existing provisions in Rule 210 (2) (c) of Kerala Treasury Code Volume I, requires that the objections noticed by the treasury in the Course of pre-audit of bills and other claims should be communicated in Form TR 73, that the drawing officer should furnish his reply on the third foil of the said form and that the reply so received should be pasted on the corresponding original copy in the book of objections.

2. The list of objections now printed on the reverse of Form TR 73 is not exhaustive enough to suit the present needs. It has, therefore, become necessary to revise the form. There are several kinds of bills and it is difficult and inconvenient to furnish a complete list of all objections that are likely to be raised on all kinds of bills on the reverse of Form TR 73. All items of objections may not be required in all cases. Each objection bill may contain only one or two items of irregularities. It will, therefore, be more advisable to give a standard list of objections as a new appendix to the Kerala Treasury Code and revise Form TR 73 leaving blank space to insert the required objections in manuscript.

3. The existing provision in the rule 210 (2) (e) is that the drawing officer should furnish reply to the objections in the third foil and such replies should be pasted to the original copy of the objections, has been found to be impracticable to follow strictly. In several cases when objections are raised on a bill, the drawing officers concerned are likely to revise the claim and send fresh bills to the treasury in which case the treasury will not be able to notice that some objections were raised in respect of such claims at all. In some other cases, especially in respect of bills endorsed to private parties, the bills are received back after curing the objections but without returning the third foil of the objection slip on the plea that the objection slip was lost or mislaid. In the circumstances, it appears better that the existing provision requiring the pasting of the reply in the third foil of the objection slip to original copy is eliminated from the rules. This has necessitated some changes to the relevant rules in Kerala Treasury Code and hence this amendment.
